Hello Parents,

Welcome to another week in January! Here's the latest from the 3rd-5th grade classroom.

Writing: In writing, we have begun learning about and writing mystery stories. We recently read "Grandpa's Teeth" by Rod Clement, and focused in on the precise details which Clement adds to his mystery. We are beginning rough drafts of our own stories where items mysteriously go missing.

Website: If you're looking for a great well-rounded website to help your child practice basic facts and learn more in many subject areas, check out <http://www.sheppardsoftware.com/>. This site has great, interactive games to help with math facts, grammar, geography, sand much more!

English: In English, our classes have been busy learning about punctuation usage, quotation marks, interjections, and much more! Some great online activities to check out include a conjunction and interjection game at <http://www.presentationhelpdesk.com/your-millionaire-game-182.html>, a quotation mark quiz at http://www.harcourtschool.com/activity/language_arts/goforgold/content_builder/dswmedia/g5c32/nadia.htm, or a sentence practice game at http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/starship/english/games/penguins_on_ice/big_sound/full.shtml.

Blessings on the rest of your week!

In Christ,
Miss Bernau
